

T.R. TAUNTS LANE WATCH AND WAIT ON U-BOATS' ACTS IN BORDER TALKS

Hits Claim That Note Writing Won Diplomatic Triumph.

NO ATONEMENT FOR AMERICANS KILLED

Stoppage of Attacks Due to British Patrol, He Says.

[By Telegram to The Tribune.]
Oyster Bay, Oct. 4.—Theodore Roosevelt wrote to Franklin K. Lane, Secretary of the Interior, to-day in reply to the latter's denial that he had admitted that the note-writing policy of the Wilson Administration had been a failure. In his Battle Creek speech the Colonel quoted Secretary Lane to this effect. His letter in part follows:

"In your final paragraph you say that Chief Justice White has been quoted as saying that by our notes to Germany we have achieved the greatest diplomatic triumph of half a century, and you say that you agree with this view, and that we have achieved more by this note sending than years of war could have accomplished."

"I trust, for the sake of my esteemed friend Justice White that he has been as erroneously quoted in this statement as you were in yours. I remember when the statement was made. It was not at the end of the note-sending episode. It was nearer the beginning, just prior to the sinking of a ship by a German submarine, when on occasion some hundreds of lives were lost. The sinking of this ship, following immediately upon the alleged statement of Chief Justice White, served as a curious commentary thereon."

Hits Mexican Situation.

"You are now yourself, my dear Mr. Secretary, in a diplomatic position, conducting negotiations apparently with the object of seeing what we can do to placate the Mexicans for our having permitted them to murder hundreds of our men, women and children, and to settle how much money we shall pay them for having forced us already to incur an expenditure of between $100,000,000 and $200,000,000."

"We incurred this expenditure in taking Vera Cruz, and then abandoning it without achieving any results, and in sending the Pershing expedition into Mexico to our soldiers murdered without exacting any atonement, and in gathering 100,000 National Guardsmen on the border without saying whether they are to wage peace or to wage war."

Threats Made to Germany.

"You regard our note sending to Germany as having achieved the greatest diplomatic triumph of half a century. In February, 1915, in our first note, we informed Germany that if her submarines caused the death of any of our people by sinking ships on which they were travelling, they would hold her to 'strict accountability.'"

"For over a year thereafter we continued to write notes, and the Germans continued to sink ships on which our citizens were travelling. They killed, all told, some 2,200 non-combatants, and between 100 and 200 babies under two years of age, fifty of whom were under one year of age. There were several hundred women among the persons killed."

"We did not hold Germany to 'strict accountability.' We did not hold her to any accountability, strict or loose. For one year we permitted the killings to go on unchecked. No atonement has been given to us by Germany for our people who were killed."

Stoppage Due to Losses.

"It has been announced in the public press that several of the captains of German submarines have been decorated for the very acts for which we informed Germany that we would hold her to strict accountability. The other day in the Reichstag the Chancellor threatened to renew the submarine warfare. Within the last month we have seen notices of several acts of neutrals being torpedoed and sunk with loss of life. It appears that the stoppage was primarily due to the fact that the British, by their vigorous patrol, captured or destroyed most of the submarines."

"My dear Mr. Lane, if you regard this record as constituting the 'greatest diplomatic triumph of a full half century' and that thereby we have achieved more than years of war could have accomplished, you must pardon my saying that you show more easy optimism of nature than soundness of historic judgment."

HUGHES IN MONTCLAIR PREPARES NEW DRIVE

Too Busy to Seek Rest in Colonel Bogie's Company.

Charles E. Hughes went to the Hotel Montclair, in Montclair, N. J., yesterday with Mrs. Hughes and his family of newspaper correspondents. He will be so busy during his few days' "rest" preparing for his next attack on the Wilson Administration that he won't have time to "mix things" with old Colonel Bogie on golf courses in the vicinity.

Most of his time will be devoted to study of material for the two weeks' Southern and Western tour, which opens in Philadelphia Monday night. He has been supplied with a mass of political ammunition by his campaign managers, and will begin planning the artillery fire this morning.

Secretary Lane Unable to Say What Conference Has Done.

MONTH'S PARLEY DEVOID OF RESULTS

Commission Issues "Blind" Statement About Day's Activity.

[From a Staff Correspondent of The Tribune.]
Atlantic City, Oct. 4.—Why the Mexican-American commission, appointed jointly by President Wilson and General Carranza to settle Mexican problems involving American life and property, is unable after a month's session to show definite results to-day was put squarely up to Secretary Franklin K. Lane, chairman of the American division of the commission.

The question was put after the commission had given out a statement containing about 110 words, which was declared to cover completely the entire day's work of the mediators. The statement, which contains only two sentences, mystified the newspaper men by its circumlocution and ambiguity. They asked Secretary Lane what it meant.

"What construction would you place on it?" countered the Secretary, scratching his head in apparent bewilderment over the verbal puzzle. "What do you think it means?"

"Just nothing at all," was the answer. The Secretary's countenance brightened and he smiled. He did not seem dissatisfied with the interpretation; at any rate, he offered no better one. Subsequently he indicated that it might be considered possible to throw some light on the announcement a little later on.

Baffled, the correspondents set themselves to the task of extracting some meaning from the tortuous terminology.

Here is the statement:

"The morning session of the American and Mexican Joint Commission was devoted to the presentation to the Mexican commissioners by their American colleagues of the importance of giving consideration to certain questions which have a distinct international bearing because of their effect on the status and the rights of foreigners resident in Mexico and of foreigners who have invested their capital in Mexican enterprises."

"The position taken by the American Commission is that the satisfactory solution of these questions is an integral and necessary part of a general programme, the purpose of which is to assure to Mexico the resumption of her normal position among the nations of the world."

For four hours the correspondents puzzled over the problem, trying to extract from the document some idea of what was being done toward putting an end to border raids. For this purpose was the commission appointed, for this object, according to President Wilson and General Carranza, are the Mexican delegates at Atlantic City. No announcement of any change of aim has been made, and yet the vexatious statement plainly stated that "the purpose" is to assure to Mexico the resumption of her normal position among the nations of the world.

Secretary Lane Silent.

In despair, the newspaper men again waited on Secretary Lane to-night, in the hope of obtaining some clue to the puzzle. The Secretary, however, sent out word that he had nothing more to say.

The Secretary similarly refused to talk to-day when the writers asked to what tangible result has been achieved by the commission since its deliberations began.

"Has anything been done toward 'restoring to Americans in Mexico' what was asked? 'What are the achievements of the commission to date?'" Mr. Lane could make no statement.

And so to-night not only are the results achieved by the mediators an unknown quantity, but even the purpose of the parley is in doubt.

Washington Sees Solution of Mexican Problem Soon

[From The Tribune Bureau.]

Washington, Oct. 4.—A satisfactory adjustment of all the outstanding issues with Mexico, to include the withdrawal of the Pershing expedition and the mustering out of the militia, will be reached in a few weeks, it was said in informed quarters to-day. It was emphasized, however, that no changes in the military situation need be looked for until questions affecting internal conditions in Mexico and the protection of the border have been settled.

The Administration believes Carranza will not attempt to force the issue by demanding an immediate decision on the withdrawal of the troops, but will confine his demands to what he believes he can get. Officials point out that the proposal for withdrawal, made in conference Monday, contained no threat of drastic action if not accepted. It should be regarded, they say, as a helpful suggestion for solving the problem.

Before the militia can be demobilized, according to President Wilson's plan, the 10,000 men who have not yet had border service must take their turn. They are now in state camps and will go to the border in the "immediate future," and an equal number will be released from service at the same time, and from there on the reduction of the border force, it is expected, will be accomplished gradually. About 100,000 militiamen are now on the border.

PRICE CONSPIRACY LAID TO EAST SIDE BAKERS

Forced Advance by Underselling Rivals, Is Charge.

Evidence of conspiracy involving many East Side bakers, accused of raising bread prices, will be taken before the grand jury next week, according to Assistant District Attorney Eder. Most of the witnesses thus far have appeared against the East Side combination. Little has been done toward getting evidence against big bakers, whose prices were among the first to be advanced.

Mr. Eder says he learned yesterday from an East Side complainant that the combination raised the price of rolls from ten to twelve cents a dozen, and in order to compel all retailers to adhere to the new price the combination

WEST END AV. HOUSE SOLD

Paterno Company to Build 13-Story Apartment.

John J. Dillon, Commissioner of Food and Markets, yesterday sold his dwelling house, at 903 West End Avenue, to the 905 West End Avenue Company, Anthony Paterno, vice-president.

The Paterno Company also bought 901 West End Avenue to add to its previously bought holdings at 905 to 909 West End Avenue. On the combined sites will be erected a thirteen-story apartment house. The sale was negotiated by Earl & Calhoun.

BROKER BROKE PROMISE, CHORUS GIRL ASSERTS

Plaintiff in $30,000 Suit Charges Fraud in Release She Signed.

Justice Penderon will hear to-day the application of Oscar H. Alexander, a stock broker, to dismiss an order to examine him before trial, obtained by Miss Margaret G. Sullivan, a chorus girl, who is suing him for $30,000. Miss Sullivan, who seeks to have him examined as to his financial condition, alleges that Alexander made repeated promises in 1913, 1914 and 1915 to make her his wife and then married another.

The plaintiff says she was induced to sign a release of her claim against the

"TODY" HAMILTON'S CURIOS AT AUCTION

Will Be Sold To-day for Benefit of Press Agent's Widow.

Like many another big-hearted, generous "hail fellow, well met" in the show business, the late Richard F. ("Tody") Hamilton, known from Maine to California as press agent for Barnum's Circus, died comparatively poor. His legion of friends will be sorry to hear that his widow is in such circumstances that she is compelled to dispose of his treasured collection of curios and furniture at auction.

"Tody's" effects are to be sold to-day by Henry Hartman, at the Fifth Avenue Auction Rooms, 333 Fourth Avenue, and many of his oldtime comrades in the circus, theatrical and newspaper

Game Preserves Urged

Some of the foremost conservationists in the country agreed yesterday, at a meeting held under the auspices of the American Game Protective Association, that only the passage of the Chamberlain-Hayden bill, now before Congress, would save the big game of the West from extermination. It was pointed out that if the government should establish sanctuaries in the national preserves, where the game might breed undisturbed by hunters, there would be a plentiful supply for the future.

Mrs. Warren Files Demurrer

A formal demurrer has been filed to the libel in the government's suit for the forfeiture of gowns and personal effects brought into the country by Mrs. Charlotte A. Warren, wife of Whitney Warren, an architect.
